One of Peace Delegates, Arrives Here With Party on Way to Paris.

IN ACCORD WITH ALLIES

Nipponese Eager to Assist Reconstruction Programme as Planned.

Barbn Nobuaki Makino, one of the three Japanese delegates of ambassaforial rank to the peace conference, arhead of a party of twenty-three members. The mission travelled on a sperived in New York yesterday at the cial train provided by the Government from San Francisco. It will sail on the Carmania for England on January 4. In Paris Bagon Makino will join Marquis Salonji, Japan's senior delegate, and Baron Chinda, Ambassador to England Henry G. Gray and Ralph M.

Baron Chinda. Ambassador to England and the third peace delegate. Marquis Salonji chose the Suez Canal route.

Baron Makino said that he could not talk intelligently on the attitude that will be taken by the Japanese delegation toward the problems of the peace conference until he had talked with his colleagues. He added:

"In principle and on broad grounds Japan is in full and hearty agreement with the allied Governments. Japan was able to clear Gegmany from her bases and from the seas of the Far Elast and to keep the door open for commerce on the Pacific. We have insured peace in the Orient and peace and the 'open door is our fixed policy. In the maintenance of this policy we will welcome the content and peace and the 'open door is our fixed policy. In the maintenance of this policy we will welcome the content of our friends. I bear the assurance that Japan in her future dealings with other countries will follow such a course in her foreign relations as will insure the most effective partnership in the great work of reconstruction, which can be cartied out only by the participation of all."

Member of House of Peers.

Baron Makino is a member of the Mayor's Committee on National De-

Member of House of Peers.

Baron Makine is a member of the Japanese House of Peers and the advisory council on diplomatic affairs. He has been in the service of his Government for thirty-rive years. He was the Minister of Education Affairs in the first Cabinet of Marquis Salonji and Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Yamamoto Cabinet. He served as attache at Rome and Vienna.

He attended school in Philadelphia in the carry 70s. While he was in this country-his father, Toshimieht Okuro, came here as a member of the lawkura mission to announce the restoration of the policy which afterward came to be known as that of the "open door" in foreign intercourse.

Baron Makino said yesterday that like his father his errand is to announce to the word that Japan stands for peace, cooperation among pastions and the "open door" in the Fix East. He added that he had been deeply touched by the honor paid to the visiting mission from its arrival in San Francisco.

Good Sign for Future.

"Our reception here and the kindly attentions we have received constitute an augury of the future relations between since two countries which have never tried in better understanding and good neighborhood than they do at present, Fevrything I have seen and every thing I have heard from my countrymen here has tended to indicate even close of the futures."

Since writing the letter to the sour rilous attack made by the Mayor on every person who refuses to serve with Hearst. Such an attitude on the part of the Mayor on every person who refuses to serve with Hearst. Such an attitude on the part of the Mayor on overy person who refuses to serve with Hearst. Such an attitude on the part of the Mayor of this great city is on a par with the relations in the future."

Sire writing I have seen and every element of the special person who refuses to serve with Heart was the part of the future of the future have happened in the Far East since had received relating to these had been vague. For six months before he left these had been vague. For six months before he left these had been vague. He sent the following letter these had been vague. there had been uneasiness, he said, but this has been largely discipated by the surrender of Germany. He ascribed the disturbed state of the public mind to conditions in Russia and a Sheria and to the netivities of enemy agents. Even is Japan, he said, it had been found impossible to sitogether eliminate German sples and propagandists during the war.

The peace delegate said that he had been compelled to decline an invitation of the New York Chamber of Commerce to luncheon with regret.

Plans for Reconstruction.

Discussing the reconstruction of business he said: "We will welcome in the Far East closer and more intimate relations with the leaders of industry, trade and commerce who have perhaps done more than armine or navies to win the war. The Far East offers a vast field for the cooperation of the forces of reconstruction, and those forces must necessarily be drawn from the ranks of the men who compose the chambers of commerce throughout Europe, the United States, Japan and China.

Accompanying Baron Makine is Lieut. Gen. Takeil Nara and Vice-Admiral Isamu Takeshita, military and naval representatives respectively; Eigo Pukal, director of the Bank of Japan Kikusaburo Fukul and Matine Kita, financial representatives. Mr. Fukul is maniging director of the Mitsul Company and was its representative here for a number of years.

The party travelled in a special train of six cars. Norman Armour of the State Department had charge of the arrangements. C. Yada, Consul-General, and fifty members of the Japanese colony here met the train at the Grand Central Station.

In the interim before sailing Baron Makino will visit Viscount ishii in Washinston.

The new ticket speculator regulating ordinance is now in force, it having been filed late vesterday afternoon. No longer will the Broadway wolves be able to gouge a profit of 200 or 300 per cent. from the pockets of visitors. This was made plain yesterday by District Attornov Swam. "I hope to be able to stop this form of grafting on the public, particularly the practice of levying of tribute on the out of town visitors, who are desirous of getting seats for the more popular productions." he said. "So far as the District Attorney's office is concerned for the next three years of my term this ordinance will not be allowed to be-

That the public has paid only about one-third of the war's expenses, excluding foreign loans, in taxes, in cash and two-thirds as loans to be repaid in another generation is indicated by Treasury figures of collections from various sources. With the last four days of the year not yet tabulated it is shown that receipts from taxes, customs and miscellaneous revenue amounted to $4,687,063,000, of which $2,949,032,000 came from income and excess profits taxes alone; $1,124,518,069 from other Federal taxes; only $171,000,000 from customs duties on imports, and the balance, or about $441,000,000 from miscellaneous revenue sources. GOVERNMENT COST

American people about $18,160,000,000 from miscellaneous revenue sources.

American people about $18,160,000,000 to run its expensive war Government and make loans to allies in the year seeding to-day, according to computations from Treasury reports.

December expenditures, more than two billion dollars, the record of the nation's history, sent aggregate war cests to date to approximately $24,500,000.

Of the $18,160,000,000 paid out of the Treasury's coffers in 1918 probably $10.000,000 downt for the army and the general military establishment, about $2,000,000,000 went for the army and the general military establishment, about $1,500,000,000 as loans to America's brothers in arms.

Although hostilities ceased almost two months ago, the Government's outlay each day is mounting on account of the liquidation of tremendous war contracts, and Treasury officials said indications are that the demands on the Government in the first month of the mey year may be even more than for this month.
